

TILAK MAHARASHTRA VIDYAPEETH, PUNE
BACHELOR OF LAWS (LL.B.) (Three Years Semester Pattern)/
B.A. LL.B. (ACADEMIC LAW)
(FIVE YEARS SEMESTER PATTERN) CREDIT SYSTEM
EXAMINATION : MAY - 2025
SIXTH/TENTH SEMESTER

Sub.: The code of criminal procedure, 1973, Juvenile Justice Act. 2015 & Probation of offenders Act. 1958 (LW-601/10001)

Date : 07/05/2025

Total Marks : 60

Time: 10.00 am to 12.30 pm

Instructions: 1) All questions are compulsory.
2) Figure indicate to the right full marks.

Q. 1. Answer the following question. (15)

A) Explain the concept of FIR (First Information Report) under Section 154 of CrPC.

OR

B) Explain the procedure for the maintenance of wives, children, and parents under Section 125 of CrPC

Q. 2. Answer the following question. (15)

A) Explain the concept of charge framing and its significance in a criminal trial

OR

B) Explain the trial procedures in criminal cases, including summary, warrant, and summons trials

Q. 3. Write Short Notes. (any four) (20)

- a) Rights of an arrested person
- b) Anticipatory bail
- c) Role of public prosecutors
- d) Doctrine of double jeopardy under CrPC
- e) Confession and its evidentiary value
- f) Powers of the Magistrate under CrPC

Q. 4. Answer the following questions. (10)

A) A person is arrested for theft, and the police seek 14 days of custody for investigation. The accused claims that police custody should not exceed a certain period.

- What is the maximum duration for police and judicial custody under CrPC?
- What are the rights of the accused in such cases?

OR

B) A poor laborer is arrested for a bailable offense but is unable to afford legal representation. The police do not inform him of his right to a lawyer.

- What are the legal rights of an arrested person under CrPC?
- Can the court intervene in such a situation?