Q. 4. Answer the following questions. (10)

A) A group of citizens begins a peaceful protest against an unjust law. They refuse to use violence, willingly accept punishment, and remain firm in their stand for justice. Their goal is to convert the wrongdoer through love and truth rather than hatred

In the light of the above situation, explain Mahatma Gandhi's concepts of Truth, Non-Violence, and Satyagraha, and discuss his vision for an ideal society based on these principles.

OR

B) In a democratic society, citizens participate actively in law-making and respect rules that promote the welfare of all. A leader argues that the purpose of the state is not to limit individual freedom but to help people realize their moral and social duties.

Based on this situation, explain T.H. Green's concept of the State and General Will. How does the State help individuals to achieve true freedom?
